Dutch serious games: collaborations and partnership

On the 4th of June, 4 serious gaming and gamification companies from the Netherlands will visit the Games Solution Centre to meet with the Singaporean (serious) gaming industry. These companies are highly successful in the Netherlands and Europe and are looking to expand their businesses into Asia. They are looking for you to help them!

The companies, IJsfontein, Grendel Games, Little Chicken and &ranj, have extensive experience in a variety of fields where serious games and gamification can be applied. Prime examples of this are: healthcare, education, learning/training and the corporate world. More in-depth information on the companies can be found here.
