

On 15th November 2016 – 1.30 pm

Apenstreken (Monkey Business)

Dir.: Johan Nijenhuis /The Netherlands/2015/87'

Set around 1900, Apenstreken (Monkey Business) tells the story of orphan Wim, who badly wants to go to school, instead of spending his time doing forced labor in the city's factory. By his own cunning, and with a little help from a small monkey, Wim finds new friends, a fun school and a loving family.

On 15th November 2016 – 3.30 pm

Keet & Koen en de speurtocht naar Bassie & Adriaan

(Shack & Koen and the search for Bassie & Adriaan)

Dir.: Annemarie Mooren/The Netherlands/2015/79'

In Shack & Koen and the search for Bassie & Adriaan go Shack and Koen, the entertainers of an amusement park, looking for the missing Bassie & Adriaan.

When Bassie & Adriaan receive an award for their great merits as people rescuers, the Baron decides to stick to stabbing here. He gives the order to abduct Bassie & Adriaan his cousin 'Esquire'. When Shack! and Koen discover that Bassie & Adriaan are missing, they put to find anything at all to them. And that is more difficult than initially thought.

On 15th November 2016 – 5.15 pm

Jack's Birthday Wish (Jack Bestelt een Broertje)

Dir.: Anne de Clercq /The Netherlands/2015/84'

Jack (8) has two mothers, is an only child and can only be bad. Jack's greatest wish is therefore a brother. But this brother is coming but not how often his mother also begs.

In protest, Jack has set up two rabbit ears, which he only marketing as his mother give him what he wants. When Jack discovers that his mother ordered him via the internet, a whole new world for him. So he just himself can buy a little brother! This realization leads to a journey full of strange encounters with the strangest figures in which Jack discovers that he himself is actually pretty good company.

Organised by

THE NETHERLANDS
CHILDREN'S
FILM FESTIVAL

14-15 NOVEMBER 2016

In association with

National Film Archive of India
Law College Road
PUNE

Organised by

Kingdom of the Netherlands

In association with

national film
archive of india
राष्ट्रीय फिल्म संग्रहालय

For More Details Contact: 020 24265161
Age Group - 10 to 16 years
Seating On First Come First Served Basis

The Netherlands Children's Film Festival (14-15 November 2016)

On 14th November 2016 - 11.00 am
@ NFAI Auditorium Law College Road

Chief Guest
Ms. Dominique Kuhling
Deputy Chief of Mission
Embassy of the Kingdom of The Netherlands,
New Delhi

Guest of Honour
Joost de Vries
Producer

Presided by
Dr Jabbar Patel
Chairman, Pune Film Foundation

Shri. Prakash Magdum
Director, NFAI

Rahul V Karad
Vice President - MAEER's MIT Pune,
Executive Director - MIT School of Film & Television

Opening Film on 14th November – 12.00 Noon

The Little Gangster (De Boskamp's)
Dir: Arne Toonen /The Netherlands /2015 / 102'
This film has won four International Awards

Comedy about a boy who is bullied and therefore decides to boost his image by saying that he belongs to a mafia family. Rik Boskamp, son of a nerdy accountant, will not be bullied. Inspired by a mafia film he gets an idea. He causes his elders to move and that his father is looked at for the dangerous mafia boss Paulo Boskamp in the new village. It soon turns out to work the plan. Rikkie Boskamp is no longer bullied, everyone is afraid of Paulo and treats them with respect. Until a bully from the past emerges. How long Rikkie may lie still before its discovered?

Organised by

In association with

On 14th November 2016 – 2.30 pm

Stay (Blijf!)
Dir: Lourens Blok /The Netherlands/2011/90'

This film won three International Awards

Eleven-year-old Lieke and Milad live in the same neighbourhood and have been friends for years. They share everything. When Milad and his Iranian parents threaten to be extradited after years of litigations, Lieke is at a complete loss as well. While people protest in the schoolyard, this tough girl travels to The Hague to bring the case to the attention of higher authorities. Youth film shows how children, too, are affected by the current extradition policy.

On 14th November 2016 – 4.30 pm

Penny's Shadow
Director: Steven de Jong/The Netherlands/2011/111'

During a riding vacation on the island Ameland, a young girl discovers a dangerous horse who distrust people. To prove that the horse isn't dangerous at all the girl secretly trains the horse to trust humans again.

On 15th November 2016 – 11.00 am

Mike Says Goodbye! (De Groeten van Mike)
Dir.: Maria Peters/The Netherlands/2012/95'

This film has won four International Awards

Mike spent months in the hospital and can finally go home, but his mother never comes to fetch him. A sweet nurse turns off anxiety in youth care, and it looks like Mike to a foster family needs. Ridiculous, says Mike. He also knows that his mother sometimes drink a little too much, but he can take care of themselves? Together with his roommate Vincent, he invents all sorts of ways to thwart the plans of Youth. He succeeds Christmas home to celebrate his mother?

Organised by

In association with

